Tea Selection

Black Tea

English Breakfast

One of the world's favorite morning teas,
English Breakfast blends complex malty Indian and copper-liquor Ceylon teas with the brightness of a China keemun.

Aroma: Sweet and malty.

Palate: Rich, full-bodied, and brisk.

Notes: High health and high caffeine.

Decaf English Breakfast

Perfect for those who want a traditional breakfast tea with reduced caffeine.

Aroma: Sweet and malty.

Palate: Medium body.

Notes: Medium antioxidants and caffeine-reduced.

Imperial Earl Grey

This tea is an aromatic experience, inspiring the mind and lifting spirits. Natural bergamot oil comes from a small citrus grown in Italy, and is known for its calming, restorative and antidepressant properties.

Aroma: Floral with citrus highlights.

Palate: Rich, full-bodied, and brisk.

Notes: High energy and high caffeine.

Herbal Infused

Floral Jasmine Green

A romantic tea, pale green in the cup with a delicate flavor and lingering sweet aroma.

Aroma: Beguiling poetic jasmine.

Palate: Mild character with slight tannins.

Notes: High antioxidants and low caffeine.

Chamomile Flowers

Chamomile has a long history in folk medicine, dating back to ancient Egypt when it was used to treat malaria. Medieval Germans drank Chamomile tea to relieve indigestion

Aroma: Soft, smooth, and apple-like.

Palate: Delicate and floral with lingering aftertaste.

Notes: High health and caffeine free.

Peppermint Leaves

Peppermint, a cross between watermint and spearmint, has a very high menthol content, giving our blend its strong, minty aroma and flavour.

Aroma: Soft, smooth, and apple-like.

Palate: Delicate and floral with lingering aftertaste.

Notes: High health and caffeine free.

Classic Orange Pekoe

Pekoe is a Chinese word describing the spring buds of the tea bush which are covered with "down."

Aroma: Subtle and sweet.

Palate: Medium-bodied with maturity.

Notes: High energy and high caffeine.

Mountain Berry

A fruity SUPERFOOD blend of Saskatoon berries, currants, hibiscus, rosehips, seneka root, blueberries, cranberries, apple pieces, flower petals, and herbs.

Aroma: Ripe, fruity scent; grapey.

Palate: Full and strong with a wine-like finish.

Notes: High health and caffeine free.
